North Valley Occupational Center

Mission Statement

North Valley Occupational Center offers educational and training opportunities that provide a diverse population of students with skills to participate more effectively in the family, at work and in the community.

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

NVOC'S NEW LOGO

North Valley Occupational Center has a new logo. The new design incorporates two elements which together, provide a sense of uplifting, forward-moving and friendly feel. The symbol and the type should always be used together, not separately. A second design will incorporate the names of the four satellite campuses. We will use the new logo soon in our redesign of the new school website and will order t-shirts/ polos for our staff and students to purchase.

HOLIDAY PARADE

NVOC would like to acknowledge the people that gave their time and participated in the Granada Hills Holiday Parade on Sunday, December 3: Mr. Mendez, ESL Pathway Adviser; Sandra Tovar, Medical Assistant Student; Olga Espinoza; Ms. Bouziane, Reading Instructor; Rachele Hernandez, day Student Council Vice-President; Tristan De Leon (Harim De Leon's son); Naiomi Ruiz, Medical Assistant Student; Johnny Diaz, day Student Council Secretary; and Lorena Nuñez, evening Student Council President. All of these participants were at the holiday parade from 10:30 a.m. They helped decorate the van to turn it into a nice float, walked the parade advertising the school, handed out flyers, and were not out of the parade until 4:00 p.m. The Pacoima Holiday Parade is Saturday, December 9th at 9:00 a.m. If anyone would like to participate or help, more information will be provided after this Wednesday with informational flyers for everyone. The NVOC van that we used has been decorated but needs some holiday touching up.

Employee Attendance Policy

While the vast majority of employees have a strong commitment to their work and excellent attendance, it is also clear that unnecessary absenteeism has a negative impact upon student achievement due to interruption of the continuity of instruction, and results in reduced productivity, loss of service, and significant costs to the Los Angeles Unified School District ("LAUSD"). The LAUSD Board of Education expects:

- Employees to maintain regular attendance and avoid absenteeism;
- Employees to work every hour that they are assigned;
- Employees to be at their work stations on time every working day;
- Employees to comply with legal restrictions, LAUSD policy and procedures, and the respective collective bargaining rules regarding reporting of absence and providing appropriate documentation;
- Supervisors to explain and insist upon regular attendance, maintain accurate employee attendance records, monitor employee attendance, provide performance feedback to employees and enforce all employee attendance policies and standards through employee performance evaluations and discipline processes.
- The District will make every attempt to avoid scheduling activities that contribute to staff absenteeism.

LAUSD seeks to assist administrators and supervisors to efficiently manage attendance, improve employee effectiveness through reduced absenteeism, and guide employees in appropriate use of illness and personal necessity time. Illness leaves are provided to ease the financial burden on employees who are unavoidably required to be absent from duty due to legitimate illness, injury, or personal necessity. Personal necessity leaves are provided for only eleven specific causes. Employees who use illness and personal necessity leaves for unauthorized reasons are in violation of District policy and related laws. Failure to comply with this policy can result in appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
